because of the fact that there is probably not any financial interest in...in someone who examines the like audi...audiology, or speech language pathology. That would be my reasoning.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, suppose somebody who is in that profession sits on the board, maybe a decision is made that will benefit him or her in his or her particular business?

SENATOR JANSSEN: I would imagine there is always that possibility, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Let me ask you this, Senator Janssen. Have the representatives of these boards and entities made complaints about how burdensome it is for them to file these reports?

SENATOR JANSSEN: No, not to my knowledge. There was no one in committee that...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So...

SENATOR JANSSEN: ...testified either way.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So the sunshine commission is saying that it is too burdensome, too burdensome of them to maintain these filings, is that why we have these being stricken?

SENATOR JANSSEN: That was the Accountability and Disclosure's idea behind this bill was the fact that it was just more paperwork for them to file and to store.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, maybe we could do something with reference to the storing requirement. How do they store these documents?

SENATOR JANSSEN: I would imagine they store them in a filing system. I don't know whether they have...have any magnetic numbers or whatever you call those photograph machines that take the little pictures of....

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Janssen, because of...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.
